

Energy Healing

The power of healing touch activates subtle energy systems of the body to:

Relieve the stress of physical and emotional pain,
Reduce acute and chronic trauma from this or past lives,
Build self-confidence and intuition,
Balance the chakras, and help the body heal itself.

Every session brings mental clarity, increased energy to the physical body, and a deep sense of satisfaction and bliss.

Dr. Jeri Castronova is a Spiritual Psychologist and Certified Energy Healer who treats physical, emotional, mental and spiritual issues and believes the natural healing process ultimately comes directly from Divine Source.
